

Tea for Three

Elena Guarducci - voice and snare drum

Stefano Montagnani - guitar

Riccardo Bonciani - piano

The "Tea for Three" Trio is the combination of three professional musicians, each one of them with their different approach to music and professional experience but with the same musical tastes and purpose of having fun and amuse people.

The Band. The intent of "Tea for Three" trio is to offer an high quality musical live show. The wide music expertise and the long term grown competence of the group members always guarantee the high standard of the musical performance. This one is enhanced by the repertoire that inclose original arrangements and is accredited by a long experience in different sort of contest: from street festivals to theaters and auditorium, from clubs to grandhotels and

The sound. The guitar, the piano, the snare drum and the voice are acoustic instruments with a large range of colours and dynamics. The warm and charming tone voice is tungle with instrumental improvvisations of the piano and the guitar: this magic mixture is supported by the lively and fair rhythm of the snare drum played with brushes.

The repertoire is a vast and multicolored collection taken from different musical genres. With original arrangements, it ranges from Italian, European and American '40's swing to jazz standards including Bossanova and instrumental songs as waltz musettes, beguine and more. A position of considerable importance is occupied by the Italian songs that have become famous all over the world: the old swing music of the radio and gramophone. In conclusion "those little tunes appreciated throughout the world"
